Dear Friends,

Many years ago I met a woman at Unity Church of Ft. Lauderdale, the church I came out of, who had been diagnosed by her doctors to have only a few weeks left to live. Instead of being filled with fear and grieving her loss, instead of being bitter and angry, she decided to see every day as a gift from God. It changed her life so much for the better that she lived for many years.

Think of this day as God's gift to you. Accept this day with thankfulness. You are the only one who can decide to make this day a day of beauty, a day of joy, and a day of enthusiasm. Remember that God withholds no blessings, that God's good is freely given to all who are receptive. This day contains health, happiness, and success for you. God's good is within your reach, this very day.

You have the power to begin this day by rejoicing in God's many gifts. As you express a spirit of thankfulness all day long, then every hour blooms and blossoms in gladness and beauty.

Express an attitude of gratitude by praying simple thank you prayers: Thank you, God, for the gift of today. Thank you, God, for the gift of life. Thank you, God, for Your gift of Your presence ever with me to guide, sustain, and provide for me!

This day, you stand on the threshold of an open door. You step through that door, knowing that God is with you, guiding you aright. Before you, there is an endless opportunity to prove the power of God. You are blessed not only with new opportunities, but you are assured of new victories of accomplishment through God's perfect help. God helps you attain and overcome. God is with you, today, to enable you to extract the highest and best from each experience. In any circumstance that you face, today, remember Jesus' promise, "Lo I am with you always."

If you step forth into some unfamiliar or unknown way, today, know that you are not alone. Today, you are aware of the invisible, yet very real, Presence of God with you every step of the way. Today, all that is required of you is one step at a time. Each step strengthens you with increasing zeal and enthusiasm to claim the good that God has for you.

Today, you go forward unafraid. Today, with God, you cannot fail. Why? Because as Jesus taught, "It is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom of all good, and He already knows what your needs are before you even ask."

*Blessings,
Rev. Chuck*
